VOL XII. PORTLAND, OREGON, TUESDAY MORNING, JUNE 18, 1872. NO. 118

VOORHEES' SPEECH.

HE DECLARES [illegible]
[illegible]
FROM A DEMOCRAT [illegible]

At Terre Haute on the [illegible] of May, D. W. Voorhees, in accordance with [illegible] previous announcement, addressed a large audience in this city on the political issues of the day. He was received with much enthusiasm by the people, and spoke substantially as follows:

I thank a kind Providence that I am once more in the midst of my neighbors, and that face to face with them I am permitted to speak for myself. I thank you for the warm affection with which you have welcomed me home now, as heretofore. Almost there is one spot [illegible] and the quiet stars of good men are shining over our heads. One of the highest duties of a representative is to render an account of his official conduct to those whose agent and servant he is. This obligation I have always met in the past, and I am here again to meet to-night. I believe in the will and in the power of the people, and if I have betrayed or deceived them let them condemn me without hesitation and without mercy. If, on the other hand, I have been faithful to the principles on which you have elected me five times to Congress, I know that I will not appeal to you in vain to stand by my side and uphold the cause which is yours as well as mine. I do not speak as a candidate again for your suffrages either now or hereafter, but rather as one who cherishes your respect and confidence as above all price, and who will defend his rights to them under all circumstances, and to the utmost extremity. For nearly ten years I have represented a noble, brave, intelligent constituency. I have been sustained by you in sunshine and in storm, because I distinctly advocated and firmly adhered to certain principles of government which I thought to be right, and opposed others which I thought to be wrong. The Democracy of this district agreed with me on these questions or they would not have voted for me. A man in public life is tried by the principles he advocates and to which he has devoted his life. If my constituents have become personally attached to me it is because of the consistent record I have made in accordance with their own solemn and conscientious convictions of right and duty. This is the only true and firm basis of concord and sympathy between an intelligent and honored people and their representative. You and I have been united in doctrine, and hence we have been united in heart and action.

HE IS CONSISTENT IN HIS PRINCIPLES.

Democrats of Vigo county, Democrats of the Sixth District, with whom I have so often struggled against heavy odds and through weary toil to hard won victories, have I since we last met, by word or act, been false to the high trusts you have placed in my hands? That is the question I am here to answer, and in making that answer I have neither epithet nor abuse to hurl at my adversaries. I have the advantage of them in the truth of my position, and consequently my temper is better than theirs. They who, conscious of being in the wrong, always get angry first, and destitute of argument they at once resort to denunciation and slander. As to the imputations that have cast upon my motives in regard to my recent speech in Congress against the nomination of Mr. Greeley by the Democratic party, they will receive no reply from me. They need none here, and if the [illegible] tenor of my life will not silence such imputations, no word will here. I have long since adopted as a maxim that a public man cannot be killed except by his own fault. If he is in reality free from blame, he will be vindicated. Calumnies may for the time being be heaped upon him, but he will survive them if his conscience is pure. The shameless falsehoods, therefore, that have been hurled at me in this connection will soon rot and be forgotten.

DEMOCRATIC VIEW OF THE CINCINNATI CONVENTION.

Again, however, I ask the Democracy and Conservatives of this district, who have heretofore supported me upon principle, whether I have justly forfeited their confidence in the course I have taken in regard to a Presidential nomination at Baltimore. Let us look at the facts and survey the political field in a candid spirit—candid with our own breasts and candid with each other. When a considerable number of Republicans dissatisfied with the present administration inaugurated an independent movement and called the Cincinnati Convention, it was most natural that the Democratic party should watch with deep interest a proceeding so likely to divide and overthrow the party in power. I have even hoped, as I did most sincerely, that this Convention might have wisdom enough to present as its candidate some one whose devotion to the liberty of citizens, whose knowledge of the powers of the Government, State and Federal, whose attachment to revenue reform and equal taxation, whose opposition to the absolute political and social equality of the white and black races, whose support of the interests of the laboring classes and whose consistent magnanimity toward the South, shown in his disapproval of the present outrageous legislation which is ruining her, would enable us also to nominate him in a National Democratic Convention, thereby combining all the elements of opposition to one of the worst administrations ever known in American history.

HOSTILITY OF THE CONVENTION TO THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY.

This might have been done if the Cincinnati Convention had been differently composed. If instead of vain conceit there had been more sound sense; if instead of regarding the Democratic masses as a disorganized mob ready to fall in with and follow any little squad that came marching by, they had looked upon them as they are, the truest, bravest, purest, most conscientious voting population on earth; tried in fires seven times heated in the past, facing persecution and death, not for office, place or favor, but for the faith that was within them. Was there any such conception of the character of Democrats shown at Cincinnati by the men who now demand your votes? On the contrary, the bare presence of a Democrat in the city at that time was regarded by the managers of the Convention as an insult, and he was warned away with hoots and cries as a spotted leper would have been of old from an assembly of purified Jews. Every suggestion, however remotely or respectfully made by Democrats who hoped for a union for the overthrow of the Grant dynasty, was received with [illegible] and disgust as if it contained the contagion of small-pox. Who will deny a word of this? Even one of the most distinguished gentlemen who was himself [illegible] that Convention as a candidate [illegible] in writing that it was not essential to nominate with reference to the Democratic vote, as it was secure because it was helpless. Have three millions of honest men sunk so low as to tamely submit to this treatment [illegible] and studied insult to the blows and [illegible] which a spaniel receives? For my own part I will not. From my mother's breast I drew no such spirit of degrading humility. But if the tone and temper of that Convention were hostile to the Democratic party, how shall I characterize the nomination itself? I was in my seat at my desk in the house when it was announced that Horace Greeley had been nominated for the Presidency. It no more occurred to me that he or the men who had nominated him would have the brazen audacity to expect Democrats to support him than it did that the disciples of the Christian religion would turn away from their faith and worship Mahomet as the prophet of God. I congratulated myself and my friends [illegible] the battle [illegible] fully [illegible] Government. I [illegible] Grant [illegible] the Republican party [illegible] in each wing [illegible] the other a prediction of war against the principles of government and in the hands of [illegible] political alliance [illegible] since the reign of Charles II of England. I had heard that a house divided against itself [illegible] not stand. I saw the house of my political adversary divided against itself, and I knew from the [illegible] of the wisest ancient philosophy that it could not stand. I did not see that my own house was divided against itself, and I saw no reason why it should be. I knew we had votes enough to beat the Republican party thus disunited. I believed we could beat Grant with a pure and purified statesman, even if he was alone in the field. He is not strong before the people if he was confronted by a candidate who had not advised and indorsed his entire policy, as Mr. Greeley has.

REASONS FOR REJECTING MR. GREELEY.

I was not, therefore, bowed down when I heard from Cincinnati. My face was rather lifted up and brightened with hope, and I talked and wrote and telegraphed in the tone in which I am talking to you now, taking it for granted that Israel would go to her tents and display her honored flag. I recalled the fact that Mr. Lincoln was elected because two Democrats were running, and I was convinced, as I still am, that we had a better opportunity for success than we had known since Pierce was elected twenty years ago. The path of duty and of policy was the same, our party principles and our party policy conjoined. They were identical. You can hardly imagine, therefore, the feeling with which I saw certain uncertain newspapers hauling down Democratic names at their mastheads and placing in their stead the name of one who has more fairly earned and more fully enjoys the hostility and aversion of the Democratic party than any other man in the United States, and that I know is a strong statement while Grant and Morton and their coadjutors are in existence. Impartial history, however, will sustain me in it. For thirty years, commencing [illegible] when these gray heads before me were black and young, and continuing until within the last three weeks, there has been no [illegible] of coarse, brutal and infamous insult which Horace Greeley has not made on the Democratic party in the aggregate and in detail, en masse and individually. His malevolence has been unceasing, unsparing and universal. He has raged everywhere for objects of his hate and vindictive abuse. He has not hesitated to call our foremost men, like Horatio Seymour, liars and villains and traitors. He has also singled out people in private life and denounced them as ignorant, sordid and vicious for selecting Democratic officials. One of his special callings for years has been to assail the constituents of gentlemen who voted against his heresies in Congress. Our own extensive and magnificent district has often received his maledictions because I represented it and always denounced his favorite theories. In his estimation a majority of this noble population of two hundred and fifty thousand, extending nearly two hundred miles up and down one of the oldest and wealthiest and most cultivated valleys west of the Alleghany Mountains, is sunk in ignorance and wallowing in mire because they do not look at public questions as he does and elect a man to Congress to record his edicts. If I should labor to make such a man the Democratic candidate for the Presidency I would feel that I had indeed betrayed you.

GREELEY'S ANTI-DEMOCRATIC PROCLIVITIES.

But let us make a still closer examination of Mr. Greeley as a proposed candidate. I do not object to him as a Republican candidate. He is the best embodiment of the principles of radicalism now living. Republicans can vote for him consistently, and ought to. He is an older and a far abler Republican than Grant. He was a violent Republican when Grant was a Buchanan Democrat in St. Louis. I commend Greeley, therefore, to his own party, but [illegible] times a man is supported for [illegible] purely personal grounds simply because he is an amiable and worthy man, with good qualifications for the position. Such motives alone, however, never governed the choice of President, who to a vast extent shapes the whole policy of the Government for weal or woe. There is nothing, however, in Mr. Greeley's personal traits and peculiarities to commend him for the high position to which he aspires. On the contrary, a man personally more unfit to fill the office of Chief Magistrate of this mighty Government was never mentioned in connection with it; but when distinguished gentlemen are mentioned in connection with that lofty station, their principles determine the suffrages of an enlightened people more than anything else. Tried by this standard, Horace Greeley irresistibly repels every Democrat in the United States. What is he for, and what is he against, at this time? One of the living issues that has been before Congress during the whole of the present session, is Mr. Sumner's Civil Rights bill. It establishes by law and forces with heavy penalties of fine, damages and imprisonment the absolute and unqualified equality of the blacks with the whites in every school house, seminary, college, church, tavern, boarding house, railroad car, steamboat, theater, circus and stage coach in the United States. After a long contest and much debate this odious measure, injurious to both races, passed the Senate on two different occasions, Senators Morton and Pratt both voting for it on the yeas and nays. I thought of making an issue against these two Senators before the people of Indiana during the coming canvass on account of these votes, in which they so grossly misrepresented the sentiments and wishes of the people of the State; but Mr. Greeley warmly indorses this measure, and if I supported him how could I censure the Indiana Senators? A bill substantially the same as that which passed the Senate has been before the House for months past, and the Democratic members, under the lead on that subject of that very able, reliable and upright statesman, Charles A. Eldridge, of Wisconsin, have resorted to every method known to parliamentary law to prevent its passage. Mr. Greeley is so much in favor of the principles it contains that within ten days after his nomination he went into a negro church at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., and [illegible] have declared them as his own with special emphasis in behalf of mixed schools. What [illegible] will be between the [illegible] Democratic side of the House in Congress and their candidate, if Mr. Greeley should be [illegible] on the point of equality in the schools? Let me call the attention of the poor and laboring classes to its workings. You must rely on common schools. You are not able to take your children out of them [illegible] away as a rich man can his. This kind of legislation, therefore, [illegible] affects you. You must send your children with the negroes or not at all. I would provide schools for both races, but if history has recorded any one lesson for our warning in more striking colors than any other, it is the evil which follows the looser contact and social mixture of different and distinct races. Such a policy elevates neither and finally degrades both.

PROTECTIVE POLICY OF THE CINCINNATI CANDIDATE.

Mr. Voorhees then took up the question of the tariff [illegible] American [illegible] people [illegible] relief [illegible] tariff taxation [illegible] The Democratic [illegible] and Senators in Congress have been [illegible] struggling to obtain this reduction. Mr. Greeley, on the other hand, has labored for more than a quarter of a century to fasten all the [illegible] of high protection on the industry of the land. The public opinion which has culminated in such legislation is more the offspring of his life time work than of any other man in America. The farmers, the mechanics and the laboring classes generally are now paying over four hundred millions a year to the manufacturing monopolies of the country, not one dollar of which goes into the public treasury, all of which is the clear gain of capital from the toil and sweat of labor. This appalling fact has been again and again demonstrated year after year, in Congress and out of it, and cannot be successfully disputed. We as Democrats have denounced this vast system of plunder from the birth of our party to the present hour. We arraigned the old Whig Party on it, and we have fought the Republican party inch by inch upon it. We have shown that every five years the oppressed and outraged labor of this goodly land pays enough in the increased cost of living, owing to a high protective tariff, to liquidate the national debt, not a dollar of which is ever applied to that or to any other public purpose, yet we are now asked to support for the Presidency the man who has always said and now says that this monstrous system of licensed pillage is right. He is known as far as the keels of commerce extend, and wherever the plow turns a furrow, as its boldest and most avowed champion in the world.

IS HE FALSE OR FICKLE?

It is claimed, however, in some quarters that he has changed his position on this great question; that he has agreed to leave it to the people. My answer to this is brief. A man of mature age changing the deliberate and intense convictions of his whole life for the sake of an office, whether high or low, is a miserable spectacle. If Mr. Greeley has done so it proves him to be dishonest and unworthy of confidence. If he is capable of doing violence to his conscience for the sake of the Presidency he will betray the people if he is elected, if he should be again tempted as he is now. But in fact there is no change announced. He does not say that he has been wrong and ask pardon of the laboring masses for assisting to rob them. He graciously condescends to say that if elected he will allow the people to make their own laws on this subject. I was under the impression that this had always been their right. I believe that no administration has ever tried to take it away from them, but we all know the immense power which the favorite views of the President has over every other department of the Government. His messages to Congress teem with them. They make themselves felt in his private utterances. Those who seek his patronage commend themselves by echoing them. Mr. Greeley will fill his Cabinet with those who think as he thinks. His Secretary of the Treasury will believe religiously in high protection and a high tariff tax on woolens, linens, salt, coal, iron, steel, and all other prime necessities of the people. To suppose otherwise is to admit that Mr. Greeley would sell his dearest principles for place and power. No. We should have a high protective tariff administration, and the Democratic party would be in solid opposition to it on that point, as well as all others of importance, in less than ninety days after it commenced.

ON CENTRALIZATION.

Mr. Greeley's ideas in regard to the distribution of power between the Federal Government and the States was next discussed. We have a law of Congress providing that the local elections of the States, in precincts numbering a population of twenty thousand and over, shall be subject to the control and inspection of United States officers, and whenever these officials deem it necessary, subject also to the control of United States troops. No worse law than this ever menaced the liberties of the people. It is the direct offspring of the lawless and unholy spirits of despotism. It is the boldest step ever yet taken in the destruction of local self government. It was ostensibly aimed at the people and the States of the South, but it assails the very foundations of American liberty in every section. I regarded its enactment with horror and dread, as did the entire Democratic Party and Press of the country. What more sinister legislation ever disgraced the worst days of Rome, or the most revolutionary times of France? The bayonet at the ballot box, the cannon at the voting place. All this is authorized now by law, and Mr. Greeley was one of its loudest and sternest advocates. He urged its enactment upon Congress with all the power of his influential journal. Has he recanted? Has he asked for its repeal? Nothing of the kind. Has the Democratic Party abated its hostility to it? I think not. But Mr. Greeley went even further than this in his notions that the Federal Government may totally destroy local self government. Two years ago, when the Republican party suffered a defeat in the State of New York, he clamored for a law of Congress similar to the one I have just mentioned to be applied to the voting precincts of the Empire State without reference to the number of population. These facts are so well known that I only allude to them here and now for the purpose of asking whether a man with such ideas of the powers of the Federal Government can be consistently and honorably the candidate of Democrats? Would such monstrous doctrines be in their proper place at the head of the Government? Is a man to be trusted by the people who entertains them? Should Horace Greeley, with such views, be made commander-in-chief of the army? Is such statesmanship what the country needs and what the people demand? It is the worst that was ever proclaimed, the most dangerous ever promulgated in American history. I appeal to the honest heart and candid judgment of the country to bear witness to the truth of what I say. What would the great men of other days say to such doctrines? Where would Jackson and Benton and Silas Wright and Clay and Webster stand in regard to making the man President who entertains the notion that the Federal Government [illegible] authorize the United States army to control and govern all the elections of the people? It is [illegible]. May their immortal spirits come to the hearts of the people and guide them in the ways of honor, truth and patriotism.

HORACE [illegible]

But it is said that Mr. Greeley's election will bring [illegible] to the South. On what is this claim based? Has it any rational foundation? Can good come out of evil? Can a wise and honest Administration spring from dangerous and unconstitutional principles honestly entertained? If so, why should a man ever be elected to office with reference to his principles? Can the country trust the man who preached the right of secession and then desired the slaughter of those whom he had helped to mislead into its practice? Aside from the question of his integrity is the judgment of such a man [illegible]. What guarantee has the South or any other portion of the country against similar [illegible] freaks hereafter? But how does he stand on the issues that vitally affect the South at this time? He urged the enactment of the Ku Klux law, by which the habeas corpus has been suspended and the [illegible] South [illegible] Mr. [illegible] the people of the South from their [illegible] Mr. Greeley [illegible] Senators who voted [illegible] and his most [illegible] the South in the [illegible] such a nature as this? Can the American people be [illegible] to make such a man President? Can the Democratic party nominate and vote for him and still command the respect of the world? But it is urged that Mr. Greeley is in favor of universal amnesty, and therefore the South should support him. Is it not possible to select for our candidate a far better man in every other respect than Mr. Greeley, who is also for amnesty?

AMNESTY [illegible]

It is well known that many distinguished leading Democrats have always been opposed to all political disabilities growing out of the war; but there is not much left of that question now. Time and Congress has amnestied nearly everybody, and it is a question over which the President has no control. The relief must be given by Congress. But Mr. Greeley has never even been for universal amnesty. He has always coupled it with an odious and injurious condition. He also [illegible] equality of the negro with the white man of the South, negro suffrage, negro legislatures, negro members of Congress and Senators, negro Judges and negro Governors, and the consequent ruin and degradation of many of the Southern States has been the price demanded from the Southern people by Mr. Greeley for their own liberation and enfranchisement. South Carolina is to-day bankrupted by her negro legislators, assisted by still worse white men. Her insane asylum cannot be supported, and helpless maniacs are wandering in her woods and along her highways. If [illegible] of South Carolina had to surrender their State to such [illegible] the candidate for the Presidency would [illegible] their wrongs [illegible] indeed [illegible] which [illegible] the support of the Southern people in behalf of the man who more than all others in the history of the Government brought calamity [illegible] It is wise [illegible] "by their fruits ye shall know them." Judge by this rule. I see nothing in the political career of Mr. Greeley to win the favor of any class of the American people except the manufacturers, bondholders and monopolists of the East.

IS DEMOCRATIC SUCCESS POSSIBLE WITH GREELEY?

But the cry comes up that we must have success; that we cannot endure four years more of the present ruinous administration of public affairs; that our domestic policies are destructive to the harmony and prosperity of the country, and that our foreign policy has brought us into deep disgrace abroad. All this is true and more. In the last three years I have arraigned, exposed and denounced the present Administration with far more earnestness and honest zeal than all who are now denouncing me put together. When I was allowed twenty minutes a few days ago on the floor of the House in which to point out why I was not in favor of Greeley, I did not suppose it was necessary to consume the time in defining my position toward Grant. I had done that often before, and I reiterate here everything I have heretofore said in regard to his Administration. Those who have charged that I was about to support him only judge me by themselves, and suppose I could abandon my principles as easily as they have theirs. But is success possible with Greeley, if his election depends on the votes of the Democratic party? Can any one, who knows the history of this grand party, seriously think so? I think I understand the heart of the laboring people who compose the majority of the Democratic party, and I hazard nothing that if Mr. Greeley should be nominated at Baltimore, and every Democrat of distinction, whether in public or private life, from one ocean to the other, should support him, he would not receive an average of more than fifty per cent of the Democratic votes of the United States. This I firmly believe as I do that the sun will rise to-morrow. And if the madness and folly of the hour should consummate his nomination, I am willing my judgment may be tested hereafter by the record I make here to-night.

GREELEY NO IMPROVEMENT ON GRANT.

But again, would the success of Mr. Greeley be a success to the best interests of the country? I have pointed out why I think not. It is claimed that his Administration would improve upon Grant's. It might, and still compel the united opposition of all friends of reform and good government. But on what point of public policy is there any issue between Grant and Greeley? Will some one point it out. On the contrary, on all questions of national import Greeley has warmly indorsed the present Administration, and has never revoked that indorsement. A few months since he thus spoke of it: "[illegible] promptly reduced the enormous forces thus required to a peace footing. It has reduced the debt $[illegible] in the last three years. It has simultaneously reduced public taxation over $[illegible]. It has preserved peace on the frontier. It has won a friendly adjustment of threatening troubles with Great Britain. For its [illegible] share in this [illegible] we [illegible] the National Republican Administration. We reaffirm the platform of principles laid down by the last National Republican Convention, and [illegible] these principles and this record with the ticket this day chosen we appeal to all friends of honest government, of whatever previous party association, for and in the triumphant victory we unitedly pledge ourselves to win."

AT [illegible] GREELEY'S [illegible]

The antagonism of Greeley to Grant's Administration is purely personal as far as the public has been advised, [illegible] Murphy [illegible] New York having [illegible] so far as I can [illegible] I have those who [illegible] under which they [illegible] the Administration of Grant [illegible] and its principles of the slightest degree of national consequence. [illegible] fellow citizen. I crave and [illegible] this is real and not a delusion [illegible] I have taken my present [illegible] with a view to that end. If there had been [illegible] I will have [illegible] If [illegible] members of the Democratic party [illegible] press and otherwise in communication with the public have the right to speak out, as they did long ago, in favor of the nomination of Mr. Greeley, I know no canon of the party which condemns me for announcing my opposition to him. If they have the right to advise the abandonment of Democratic principles, I surely have the right to declare in favor of them. I shall certainly continue to do so without let or hindrance from any quarter. Is it any more dictation for me to speak than for others?

"Murder Will Out."

Chicago, June 16.—It is believed that the murderer of ex-Secretary of State Tindale, at Springfield, Ills., about a year ago, has been discovered in the person of James Canedy, a convict serving his term in the penitentiary for swindling. The evidence against him is of such nature that Gov. Palmer yesterday pardoned him, when he was immediately arrested by the Sheriff of Sangamon county, and taken to Springfield for trial. The murder had been involved in complete mystery, and the discovery of the murderer creates profound sensation.

Colfax and Wilson.

THE STORY OF THEIR RIVALRY—HOW THE FORMER WENT BACK ON THE LATTER.

[Washington Correspondence St. Louis Democrat.]

So much has been said in the newspapers within a few days respecting Senator Wilson's candidacy for Vice President, that a short statement of the reasons which first persuaded him to be a candidate may not be inappropriate. In September, 1870, Mr. Colfax wrote a strong letter to the New York Independent, stating his determination to retire from public life at the close of his present term of office. The language used was very strong and unequivocal, and it bore the impress of sincerity. Shortly after this Mr. Wilson, of Massachusetts, called on Mr. Colfax and asked him frankly and earnestly if he meant what he said. "Yes," said Colfax, "I do. I shall under no circumstances, be a candidate for re-election, and shall never seek or accept any other political office whatsoever." "Very Well," said Wilson, "if that is so I shall be a candidate for the Vice Presidency." This was only in answer to the solicitations of his friends, who from the first appearance of the Colfax letter had urged him to be a candidate. Among them were included, I think, nearly every Republican Senator and a majority of the members of the House. Mr. Wilson always insisted that he would not be a candidate while Colfax remained in the field, and he even refused to allow the use of his name until that gentleman had given him his own assurance of withdrawal. This was in the fall of 1870. In the summer of 1871, a year ago, Colfax met Wilson in Boston and congratulated him on his prospects for the Vice Presidency, told him everything looked favorable, and that he had only Blaine to fear. But Wilson had already received assurances that Blaine would not be a candidate, as he very properly preferred the Speakership, to which let us hope he will be often re-elected. This seemed to leave the field entirely clear to Wilson. Everybody liked him and everybody was for him. Among his other best friends was Morton, of Indiana, who pledged him the support of the Hoosier State. In January last, however, Mr. Colfax for some reason changed his mind and wrote a letter virtually announcing himself as a candidate. He and Wilson have been intense and often bitter rivals since.

The Idaho Statesman, speaking of the Republican victory in the late State election in Oregon, says it is a voice telling soreheads and Democrats that General Grant's administration is good enough, and that the Republican party still lives. It is the key note of the Republican campaign, and the same voice will be echoed throughout the length and breadth of the land.

The Idaho Statesman says: Mr. J. A. Bennett, of Payette valley, had a couple of valuable horses stolen from his farm several nights ago. They were taken by an Indian boy that he had raised, in company with a neighboring white boy. No trace of them has yet been discovered, though parties have been in pursuit since the night of the theft.

The Statesman, Boise City, says: The big ditch in the Willow Creek mines is running about a thousand inches of water. Miners jubilant, and times will soon be lively.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN STATES.

Casualty at [illegible] Ky.

L[illegible], June 16.—The [illegible] of the Christian Church at [illegible], Ky., gave way under the congregation assembled to attend a funeral service. A fearful excitement and confusion ensued and several persons were badly injured, but fortunately none were killed.

Another Strike.

New York, June 16.—Matheson & Wevcher's sugar refinery workmen struck for an advance of [illegible] cents per day. On the refusal of the firm to accede the men gathered and threatened to destroy the offices. A squad of police was summoned and drove the mob some distance with clubs, when the rioters made a stand and the police were obliged to draw pistols and disperse them. Several rioters were severely injured by clubs, and one policeman was badly hurt.

New York News.

New York, June 17.—A meeting of the Federal Council of Internationals was held yesterday. They passed resolutions denouncing the proceeding of the Common Council in relation to small-pox in Jersey City, and stating that the malady is spreading.

A secret meeting of the Eight hour League, of about 3,000 persons, was held yesterday.

A number of ex members of the Commune held a meeting on Saturday to consider the proposition to make a hostile demonstration against M. De Noailles, French Minister, on his arrival here. Much violent language was used, but no decision was reached.

The notorious "Dutch Heinrich," confined in Sing Sing, has become a raving maniac.

The fourth suit has been commenced against the Pacific Mail Company to restrain them from making a further reduction of their capital stock.

The International Conference.

New York, June 17.—A Geneva special says the proposition for an adjournment of the arbitration will occupy the arbitrators on Monday, and perhaps longer, as the purpose of the session on Monday is to hear the argument on this point. The argument on each side may be extended, and many debatable points will also be raised for the Judges to decide. A statement that the summary of the British case has been laid before the arbitrators is not to be credited. The English agents have presented no papers. They came unprepared to present any. The proceedings were meagre in point of details. The American argument was presented to the court in an octavo volume of six or seven hundred pages, with a smaller supplementary volume printed only in the English language. The American agent declared himself ready to proceed, and the English agent asked for an adjournment, without any specification of any fixed period. The Americans answer that the request with the presentation of final papers, is not according to the procedure laid down in the treaty, and raises a contingency which they will not decide without instructions from their Government. The proceedings on Monday will, however, depend entirely on the latest dispatches from Earl Granville to the English agent. The Americans are fully instructed in every step, and the English are drifting, availing themselves of every chance to ascertain the temper of the court, and how far the Americans will go toward conceding the desired length of time for an adjournment.

The Free Traders—A Regular Mixture.

Chicago, June 17.—A New York special gives a report of an interview with the Secretary of the American Free Trade League in relation to a call recently issued by Schurz, Bryant and others for a meeting on the 20th of June of the opponents of Grant. Lloyd says the meeting will not be entirely composed of free traders, but will include others, who, while opposing Grant, do not support Greeley. He enumerates five elements opposed to Greeley firmly and unalterably. First, free traders; second, independent Republicans who are disgusted at the manner in which the Cincinnati Convention was captured by politicians; third, old line Democrats who believe in principle and have always worked for the triumph of their ideas; fourth, Germans who will not sustain one who is an ardent advocate of sumptuary laws; fifth, negroes. These elements form a combination so strong that, if the choice lies between Grant and Greeley, the former will be elected by an overwhelming vote. In reply to a question, Lloyd said that no distinct nomination would be made, as it would bear too much the appearance of an attempt to dictate to the Baltimore Convention, but the result would likely be the choice of a committee to go to Baltimore and advise the Democrats that Greeley has proved so weak that another candidate ought to be put in the field.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

The Geneva Conference.

Geneva, June 16.—The Board of Arbitration adjourned yesterday until to-morrow afternoon. It is rumored that the American members will oppose a long adjournment, and ask an immediate decision.

London, June 16.—Geneva dispatches state that the sitting yesterday lasted only one hour. Lord Tenterden presented the formal demand of Great Britain for an adjournment until the question of indirect claims was settled with the United States. The American Agent replied that he had no instructions from his Government.

The American Commercial Agent and Counsel have engaged apartments in Geneva for the season.

The British Case not Presented.

New York, June 16.—A Geneva special says that the English argument was not presented by the English agent. He stated that he could not go on without further conference with London. A messenger accordingly left for London on Saturday afternoon, and will reach there on Sunday night. An answer is expected from Granville on Monday morning.

Labor Movement in Berlin.

Berlin, June 16.—Serious trouble from the labor movement is threatened here. Engineers threaten a strike, and the masters have resolved to meet it by locking up their shops and factories, thereby throwing out of work all employes, whether engaged in the strike or not.

Terrible Explosion and Loss of Life.

Marseilles, June 16.—While the Spanish steamer [illegible], with her passengers, was going out of port her boilers exploded. The entire upper portion of the ship was torn to pieces. Of those on board few escaped death or injury. Forty four passengers and eleven of the officers and crew were killed. Immediately after the explosion the steamer took fire, the flames communicated to the deck, and a serious conflagration was threatened. Several hundred bales of cotton were consumed.

Steamer Ashore.

Queenstown, June 16.—The steamer Nevada, from New York, as she approached the harbor, went ashore at East Rocher Point. A dense fog prevailed. The passengers and mails were landed safely. The ship being lightened she came off at the next tide and was towed here this evening.

JAPAN.

Yokohama, May 25.—Gov. Ito, of the Japanese Embassy, returns to America by the present mail steamer, accompanied by the Vice Minister of Foreign Affairs Terashima. Greater powers have been delegated to them by the Mikado, and foreigners will be persuaded into Japanese views ere the Embassy returns, which is now stated to be in a year instead of eight months as formerly stated.

The intention of the American Government to demand the opening up of the whole country, or at least the tea districts around Suruga, has met with cordial favor from all parties, and the visit of the American Charge to the district has resulted most satisfactorily. The officials everywhere received him in the most cordial manner, explained the process of manufacturing, gave copious details of the growth in different stages, and ended by offering copies of maps, &c. The people everywhere were elated at the prospect of their country being opened to foreign intercourse, and are preparing to receive us.

Another Government loan has been effected with the Hongkong and Shanghai bank for two million dollars at nine per cent.

The railway between Yokohama and Jeddo, 18 miles across a level plain, has been under way for the past two years and is not yet opened. It is a narrow gauge, with a [illegible] engine, and will give a [illegible] idea of locomotion of the present day.

[illegible] teas [illegible] arrived and [illegible] from forty to fifty [illegible] per picul, [illegible] steamer being nearly full of the new teas at high rates.

Three thousand merchants protested against the Government's decreeing the streets in the burnt district [illegible] but the [illegible] notwithstanding, the Government [illegible] all who desire to rebuild in a substantial manner.

A civil commotion near Niigata has taken place among the farmers. They were fired upon by the troops and several killed and dispersed.

But few foreigners have availed themselves of the privilege to visit the exhibition at the [illegible].

CHINA.

Hongkong, June 15.—The Emperor's approaching marriage has been officially promulgated, and will take place on the 16th of October. It is generally believed the Emperor will ascend the throne a few months later.

Great distress is reported in the province of Szechuen in consequence of the failure of crops.

Baron Richtofen has been obliged to abandon the exploration of the province of Yunan, and is expected shortly in Shanghae.

The Monarchy, Palos and Saco are at Shanghae and Ashuelot at Hongkong.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

San Francisco, June 17.—The old Mariner's Church building, on Mission street, occupied by Whitbeck as a carriage shop, and Ford & McCardee as blacksmiths, was damaged, with contents, by the fire last night to the extent of two thousand dollars.

The Democratic primaries, called for to-day, are formally announced as withdrawn in accordance with the vote at the Saturday evening meeting.

Arrived—The Great Republic from China and Japan, with twenty nine white and fourteen Japanese passengers, including Governor Ito and other members of the Japanese Embassy, and Rear Admiral John Rogers, of the United States Navy. Also Captain E. Nichols and Lieutenant Commanding W. K. Wheeler, of the United States Navy. Thirteen white and two Japanese passengers are bound for Europe. She has a full cargo of tea and Chinese and Japanese merchandise.

The sailing of the Alaska for China is postponed to 3 P. M.

An immense number of people are going over to Alameda to the Tuolumne Society picnic this morning.

All the flags in the city are displayed at half mast this morning on account of the funeral of the late R. B. Swain.

San Francisco, June 17.—Judge F. A. Fabens, Justice of the Peace of this city, died suddenly of apoplexy at Saucelito yesterday. There is already a lively contest for the office made vacant by his death. The Board of Supervisors will fill the vacancy. John Tighe, Esq., and D. M. Verdinal are leading aspirants for the vacant position. Judge Fabens was a graduate of Harvard.

Flags are displayed all over the city to-day in honor of the anniversary battle of Bunker Hill.

Thomas Mitchell, late Federal Superintendent of Elections, was to-day arrested on a charge of forging the name of James Eddington, who was a Superintendent at the same time but is now dead, to the pay roll, and drawing $50 upon it. He claims that Eddington authorized him to draw the same.

Stocks are quite weak this evening. Sales at the last board only 3,701 shares and total for the day only 10,464 shares.

There was an immense attendance at the funeral of the late R. B. Swain this afternoon.

The bark Comet arrived this noon from Honolulu with seventeen adult and three infant passengers.

The steamer Mohongo, from Honolulu, June 5th, arrived at 4:30 P. M., with 72 passengers, nearly all of whom were from Honolulu. She brings no Australian or New Zealand dates.

The Hawaiian news is unimportant.

Capt. Nathaniel L. Bennett, who went out in command of the Mohongo, but who was compelled to remain at the islands the last trip on account of ill health, died there of heart disease, and his remains will be brought here for interment. His wife was with him when he died. He was about 45 years of age. He has been known as an efficient steamship commander on this coast for many years.

Weather clear and warm.

There is considerable talk among mining sharps about the discovery of ore in the Red Jacket claim, near Silver City. It is claimed that it is a frog, that the old theory of the Comstock ledge forking is exploded, if the Red Jacket proves to be a genuine ledge as it appears, and that the fact will be established that it continues on directly southward instead.

The funeral of the late R. B. Swain, this afternoon, was a very impressive affair. There was no set sermon, but Rt. Rev. Horatio Stebbins made a feeling address, and was followed in the same strain by Rev. C. G. Ames, of San Jose, and the services concluded with a prayer by Mr. Stebbins. The pall was borne by James Lanforth, Ira P. Rankin, R. Chenery, Washington Bartlett, H. B. Blanchard, C. A. Low, F. McCrellish, and James DeFremery, of the Chamber of Commerce.

The particulars of the marriage of Miss Minnie Stebbins to C. F. Schroder, late ticket seller at the skating rink, and now a bank clerk, have all been made public to-day. It is stated that Mrs. Schroder, who was on her way East, has been telegraphed to return.

UTAH.

Salt Lake, June 17.—The Iowa editors, 100 in number, leave this city for the East to-morrow.

The Sunday ordinance was generally observed yesterday. The police arrested some boot-blacks and a saloon keeper named Turbatt for its non-observance. There was some apprehension of a disturbance when the latter was arrested.

The "Clouser friction car brake" was tried to-day on the Utah Central Railroad. Experienced railroad men say that it will supersede the air brake. The inventor is a resident of this city.

A report from Little Cottonwood Canyon is to the effect that on Sunday a collision occurred under ground between the occupants of the Illinois Tunnel and the Emma excavation, during which numerous firearms were used and no one injured. The laborers in the Illinois Tunnel have been busily engaged in sacking ore at the point worked by the Emma Company before the cave. Interested parties circulate various rumors, but there is no question as to the enormous bulk of the ore worked in.

The work of breaking ground on the Utah, Idaho and Montana Railroad took place at Corinne to-day. General Connor, Capt. Jacobs and others of this city were present. It is understood that the ceremony will be repeated to-morrow in the presence of the Iowa editorial excursionists.

INTERIOR CALIFORNIA DISPATCHES.

Shasta, June 17.—William Nourse, a miner near Whiskytown, while on his way to town, six miles north of here, was knocked down and robbed of $300 in dust.

Joe Keating, a German, dropped dead yesterday from heart disease.

The graders on the railroad are camped about five miles below here.

TUESDAY MORNING

The Republican National Platform

[illegible]

past policy [illegible] the [illegible] prosperity [illegible] ants have determined [illegible] country and [illegible] of them. The grants [illegible] made and [illegible] has not [illegible] interior [illegible] must remain [illegible] for many years [illegible] railroads are built. The talk [illegible] part the national domain for settlement [illegible] people [illegible] absurd [illegible] conditions are such that the people can not reach this domain. Much of the land [illegible] value [illegible] settlement but it will serve as a basis of credit for railway bonds. By granting these lands for railroad construction the really valuable tracts of country would be opened for settlement and communication between them would be established. Some other [illegible] tions of the platform are so constructed [illegible] mean something or nothing as [illegible] may require. The fourteenth resolution which touches the woman question [illegible] of this character. It would be proper for a Convention like that which assembled in Philadelphia to say just what it means. If it cannot speak out plainly and clearly on the subjects it touches it should let them alone. The sober steady sense of the people looks straight at all these questions and there is no need of paltering or prevarication. It is superfluous and unnecessary to attempt at this time to sugar over anything. Plain speaking is best. The platform in no [illegible] parts has the merit of frankness and is an outspoken Republican document.

Consistent Life

It is maliciously remarked of Mr Greeley that his life has been a constant protest against favoritism and corruption. Forty years ago in his ingenuous youth he held language of which the terrible arraignment of President Grant by the Cincinnati Convention might seem to be a parody. Then he inveighed with all the vigor of youth and the zeal of a quick conscience against the palpable usurpations of the Executive and the imminent peril of our whole fabric of constitutional liberty and national prosperity. He explained the great object and basis of the party he then championed to be resistance to usurpation misrule and despotism. He declared that he and those acting with him would contend for the reform of existing abuses and the dismissal of incompetent public servants from the trusts which they have abused—the limitation of the powers of the Executive now practically despotic and the restoration of the era of good feeling of contentment of constitutional liberty and of national prosperity.

Thus we observe that in 1832 Horace Greeley had as good an eye for a thief an usurper a liar or a villain as he has to-day and denounced such with like vigor and firmness. It is asked who the reckless despot marauder squanderer, malcontent imbecile bummer and corruptionist was against whom the philippics of H. G.'s youth were hurled. Reader, between you and us 'twas Andrew Jackson!

Pioneer Regiment of the Pacific Coast

The following facts in the history of the First Regiment U S Cavalry lately stationed at Camp Harney Oregon, but now ordered to Montana will be read with interest. The regiment has served on the Pacific coast [illegible] 1846. It was formerly known as the First Dragoons and has participated in all the Indian wars in California Oregon and Washington Territory and has been on this coast continually for the past twenty six years except during the rebellion in which it took an honorable part. Two companies of the regiment came to California in 184[illegible] with the column under Gen Stephen W Kearny and took part in the conquest of California and New Mexico—losing three officers and many brave men in the battle of San [illegible] California. Different companies of the same regiment have served under Gen Geo Wright Col Steptoe and others in the Washington Territory wars and under A J Smith Fitzgerald and [illegible] Kearney in both the Rogue river wars. They cleared the Cascades of Indians during the massacre in 1856 and it was with a troop of the same that Phil Sheridan took his first lesson in cavalry service in our Yakima war. Two companies of the same regiment garrisoned Arizona almost entirely [illegible] several years before the rebellion [illegible] Fort Breckinridge in that Territory [illegible] destroying the property to prevent it from falling into the hands of the rebels and marched east through New Mexico. This [illegible] old regiment needs no writing up as its history is already written in heroic deeds performed to protect the settlers and interests of the Government on this coast and as they [illegible] their old stamping ground for other regions [illegible] will bear with them the good wishes of many friends.

Of Grant's letter [illegible] Sacramento Union says: All the points that need be embraced in the details of an honest and patriotic platform are covered in the utterance: "When relieved from the [illegible] my present trust by the election of my successor whether it be at the end of [illegible] term or the next I hope to leave to him [illegible] a country at peace within its own borders at peace with outside nations [illegible] at home and abroad and [illegible] questions to threaten its future prosperity. [illegible] to better than [illegible] the party."

Bancroft's Presentation of the San Juan Case

The following is the introduction to Mr Bancroft's presentation of the San Juan case just submitted to the Emperor of Germany for arbitration. It is presented in a way [illegible] the diplomatist [illegible]

The treaty of which the interpretation is referred to your majesty's arbitrament was ratified more than a quarter of a century ago. Of the sixteen members of the British Cabinet which framed it and proposed it for acceptance of the United States Sir Robert Peel Lord Aberdeen and all the rest but one are no more. The British minister at Washington who signed it is dead. Of the American statesmen who agreed to it the Minister at London, President and Vice President, the Secretary of State and every one of the President's counselors [illegible] have passed away. I alone remain and after [illegible] the three score years and ten that are the days of our years am selected by my country to uphold its rights. Six times the United States had [illegible] on the northwestern boundary and six times had refused [illegible] whom the importance [illegible] was [illegible] before Your Majesty my country resolved to change its policy and in the [illegible] of Europe before a tribunal from which no judgment but a just one can emanate to expand the solid foundation of our demand and principles of moderation and justice by which we have been guided. The case involves questions of geography history and of international law and we are glad that the discussion should be held in the midst of a nation whose sons have been trained in these sciences by a Carl Ritter a Ranke and a Heffter. The long continued controversy has tended to estrange from each other two of the greatest powers in the world and even menaced though remotely a conflict in arms. A want of confidence in the disposition of the British Government has been sinking in the minds of the States of the Union now rising on the Pacific and might grow to a popular conviction not easy to be eradicated and after securing [illegible] and tranquility to the people of Germany and attaining a happiness never before allotted by Providence to German warrior or statesman will it not be to Your Majesty a crowning glory now in the fullness of years and the quiet which follows mighty struggles of a most eventful life to reconcile two younger branches of the great Germanic family?

The steamer F H D[illegible] arrived at Benton June [illegible] at 1 0 P M from the [illegible] Missouri river.

TUESDAY MORNING J[illegible] 18 18[illegible]

CITY.

FATAL [illegible]—A man named Sullivan was run over by a train of cars on [illegible] Saturday, and [illegible]. It appears that he had been engaged in the [illegible] by [illegible] tendent to [illegible] be from [illegible] road He [illegible] passage by [illegible] train for [illegible] reached Dea[illegible] about half [illegible] Eugene, Sullivan got [illegible] The [illegible] started He [illegible] was in [illegible] He was on the train while [illegible] not successful in getting on [illegible] and fell between [illegible] his body cutting it entirely through [illegible] had no [illegible] He was removed to Eugene [illegible] He was a native of Ireland and aged [illegible] years.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS —At the annual election held by the Portland Turn Verein on Sunday evening, the following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year A Le Grand President, Theodore [illegible] Vice President [illegible] Wagner 1st Secretary Chas Stettmacher 2d Secretary [illegible] A Alisky Treasurer A F Miller 1st Turnwart [illegible] 2d Turnwart A Kassel Sing Warden M Wagner I Hagner R Jessen Committee on Credentials Bauer, H W [illegible] J Quand A [illegible] Committee on Finance The prizes remaining on hand will be awarded next Sunday for the best jumping [illegible] other exercises and music will be given on the occasion

INVESTIGATION REQUIRED —As [illegible] be mes the duty of journals to speak of nuisances wherever and in whatever form they may exist and endeavor to cause their removal or abatement by an appeal to the proper official sources we would most respectfully direct the attention of the Street Commissioner and Chief of Police to the sanitary condition of Stark street south side between Front and First An investigation would certainly suggest a thorough renovation If there is nothing "rotten in Denmark," the villainous stench forces the conclusion on the senses that it exists some where in the locality indicated

VOTES CAST —At the recent State election the total vote cast in the eight precincts of the city was 2,419 The total vote polled yesterday at the city election in the three wards was 1,734 This [illegible] a difference of 685 votes It will be borne in mind that the vote at the State election was for Congressman and necessarily induced many persons who were not entitled to vote for any other candidate Another reason for this [illegible] falling off in the vote is the fact that many of the precincts extended to the county line.

NEXT CONFERENCE —The next annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church for Oregon and Washington Territory will be held at Salem commencing on the 29th of August This is several weeks later than the usual time Bishop Foster, who was elected Bishop at the recent session of the General Conference, will preside This [illegible] ordained Bishop has chosen San Francisco as his place of residence for the ensuing four years, and will of course devote special attention to the interests of the church on the Pacific coast

OBSERVATION OF CROPS —A gentleman from a tour through the western counties of the State writes "We everywhere observed what we regard [illegible] as tokens of thrift and industry The breadth of grain sown seemed to be much greater than we had observed in any former year and the early or fall sown grain was well grown and characterized by a very healthy green So, also, were many of the crops sown in February and March And yet, as to later sowing, the farmers feared that without much more rain they would be short

DEPARTS —Miss Anna Mehlig, who has favored the public on a number of occasions within the past few weeks with exhibitions of her talent taste and skill on the piano, will take her departure on the steamship John L Stephens which sails to morrow for San Francisco During her brief sojourn in Portland, Miss Mehlig has made many warm friends and has won the highest encomiums from the press, and golden opinions from the public

SERENADED —Councilman Story was serenaded at his [illegible] last night about ten o clock by the East Portland Band The band was accompanied by a number of his friends who tendered their congratulations to Mr Story on his [illegible] to a position in the City Council for the next three years The OREGONIAN is also [illegible] obligations to the same band, which discoursed some very sweet strains in front of this office.

FIRE.—About 12 o'clock yesterday the alarm of fire was sounded. The Department responded promptly to the call The fire was found to exist up on Front street, above Main The roof of Thompson s boarding house was discovered in flames, having communicated from a flue A few buckets of water were quickly applied, which saved the firemen's hose being brought into requisition The damage was very trifling

HAVE ACCEPTED —At a recent meeting of Baker Post, G A R, it was determined by a vote to accept the invitation extended by the Committee on Invitation, and parade on the Fourth of July. A regular meeting of the Post will be held on next Saturday evening All members of the organization are invited to be present, as [illegible] of importance will be transacted

PROMENADE CONCERT —The ladies and gentlemen connected with the Trinity Church will hold a grand Promenade Concert at the skating rink this evening The proceeds will be applied to the "Church Organ Fund" A band of music will lend animation to the occasion by discoursing some fine strains of music A very pleasant time can confidently be anticipated

MATERIALS —The brig Brewster which sailed Saturday for San Francisco carried away the materials to be used in the construction of the light-house at Cape Foulweather The material will be taken to the bay, and will then be placed on board the schooner Elnorah chartered for the purpose, and brought back to the Cape

NEW MASONIC HALL —The new Masonic Hall has been completed and is ready for occupancy All the furniture, fixtures, etc, belonging to the old hall, corner B and Front was being removed yesterday to the new hall The old furniture will be used in the new hall until new furniture suitable for the room can be procured

EAST PORTLAND ELECTION —The election of city officers for the ensuing year took place yesterday The following persons were elected Trustees—Messrs J C Hawthorne VanCleve Shattuck, Garrigan and McMillan [illegible]—J. A. Newell Assessor—M Martin Treasurer—K. Sheldon.

SPIRITUAL GROVE MEETING —A spiritual meeting commenced yesterday at Woodburn Station on the O. C. Railroad line, and will continue for one week. Arrangements have been effected for the reduction of fare to all those desiring to attend the meeting

FESTIVAL —The ladies connected with the German Lutheran Church will hold an ice cream, strawberry and floral festival to morrow evening in Wilson's Hall on Third Street Admission 50 cents

ACCEPTED —At a special meeting of the Portland Hibernian Benevolent Society held last evening, it was resolved by the Society to parade on the Fourth of July agreeable to invitation

MOONLIGHT EXCURSION —Should the weather prove at all propitious the members of Multnomah Lodge, I O G T will hold their long postponed moonlight excursion this evening

CAMPMEETING —A campmeeting under the auspices of the Methodist church has been in progress near Vancouver for the last week There were a number of accessions to the Church

HALL STREET FESTIVAL —A strawberry festival, for the benefit of the church will be held at the Hall Street Church this (Tuesday) evening A general attendance is desired

LOAD OF SAND —The steam tug [illegible] towed up on Sunday evening a barge loaded with sand for the new Custom House

FALLING —The Columbia river is falling On Sunday night the water fell one inch

CAR WHEELS —Thirty six pair of car wheels were brought up on the last steamer

FATAL SHOOTING AFFAIR

A fatal shooting affair occurred last evening about half past [illegible] o clock near the saloon of Edward Weeks on Washington street in which a man named Joseph Simpson was shot and mortally wounded by Charles Grant The circumstances of the affair as adduced by the Coroner's inquest are about as follows A short time before the shooting Grant entered the saloon of Weeks and desired to take a drink This was promptly refused by Weeks who requested him to leave the [illegible] [illegible] and walked [illegible] a few minutes [illegible] Grant [illegible] This time he was refused by Weeks who [illegible] him by the shoulder and finally ejected him He [illegible] on the sidewalk for a moment and almost [illegible] A few [illegible] met by Weeks when some harsh words passed between them ending in blows Mrs [illegible] Simpson who had been [illegible] upper returned [illegible] at the moment when Weeks and [illegible] were in the scuffle He sprang in between the [illegible] for her [illegible] Weeks [illegible] and [illegible] him not to [illegible] as [illegible] was [illegible] of the saloon [illegible] walk [illegible]

Simpson remarked that he thought there was enough [illegible] to [illegible] and keep [illegible] Mitchell [illegible] Simpson on the sidewalk and [illegible] the [illegible] who was still standing in front [illegible] [illegible] very [illegible] you and [illegible] interfere with [illegible] you [illegible] when Grant drew a derringer [illegible] at Simpson The ball [illegible] the [illegible] the left side He walked about ten steps and fell in front of the saloon He was assisted into the saloon and Dr W B Cardwell instantly summoned After receiving the ball he only uttered the words "I [illegible] shot" He survived the wound about 25 minutes The ball ranged back and downwards tearing the intestines in its course The [illegible] internal hemorrhage and the nervous shock was so great that the system did not react and death speedily ensued

A short time after the occurrence the Coroner was notified and an inquest was held over the remains The following jurors were summoned Thomas Kearney P Rusy, M Gleason, R M Fields S A Brigman and A G Murray

After an examination of the case they rendered a verdict in accordance with the above circumstances

Immediately after the shooting Grant was taken into custody and is now lodged in jail awaiting an examination

The deceased was 42 years of age He was a native of New York where he has two children still living He has been on the coast since 1850 For a number of years he was in the employ of the O S N Co at the Dalles So far as is known Simpson was a very peaceable quiet citizen

ELECTION OF COUNCILMEN

At the city election yesterday (Monday) none but Republican candidates were voted for The voting was therefore quite irregular and was done without much reference to nominations For all the candidates there were both Republican and Democratic votes, though the bulk of the Democratic vote of course went for the "Independents" The three men elected are all true and reliable Republicans In the First Ward Mr Story (Independent) has a large majority In the Second Ward Mr Russell is elected In the Third Ward Mr Moreland (regular Republican is chosen The following is the vote in detail

FIRST WARD

Geo L Story 477 J H Fisk, [illegible] Story s majority 283

SECOND WARD

E F Russell [illegible] C J Graham, 21[illegible] Russell s majority, 58

THIRD WARD

[illegible] C Moreland 290 J L Atkinson [illegible] Moreland s majority [illegible]

Total vote of the city, 1 734

The election was conducted with considerable animation but there was no disturbance There was less noise and display than are usually witnessed on such occasions our citizens having had a satiety of this sort of thing during the last few weeks

HISTORY REPEATS ITSELF

Messrs DeLashmutt Oatman & Co inform us that in the past six months they have disposed of about one hundred and seventy five of their [illegible] the Homes adjoining East Portland They are offering the greatest inducements to parties of small means that has ever been offered in this [illegible] They are selling [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] more than [illegible] [illegible] very [illegible] [illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible] good portion [illegible] It certainly [illegible] reason that if a block [illegible] feet square in our business center is worth from $20,000 to $300,000 a block (or acre) three miles distant ought [illegible] If Portland [illegible] great metropolis of Oregon is to follow the footsteps of every [illegible] State in the Union if the tide of immigration is still to continue to his the [illegible] of them all if capital is to seek investment here where everything is awaiting it and Oregon [illegible] have a metropolis only equal to the smallest of all her older sisters if we are to have a city of $100,000 inhabitants (and where is there an old settled State in the Union that has not a city with at least this number) if in short this is to be a commercial center street cars will be running in every direction from the city's center more than double this distance And then it will be that a five acre tract which can now be had for $250 will be worth more money than we would dare to conjecture at this time One look at the vast and rugged mountains on the west of us is sufficient to convince any one that Portland can go no farther in that direction, and consequently she must do all her spreading to the east north and south and acquire a length and breadth of many miles thus taking in not only all the land that Messrs DeLashmutt & Oatman have sold off in small tracts but very many more some of which they are now offering on very reasonable terms $25 down on five acres is all the ready money that is required—remainder in monthly installments of $10 to $20 per month Office address No 93 Front street Portland Oregon

IT IS RATHER [illegible] understood that Judge Wilson has been [illegible] to Congress [illegible] the attention of everybody will be taken up with the National election But notwithstanding these exciting events [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] clothing [illegible] This is that they offer such [illegible] inducements to those who favor them with a call

THE REASON WHY —It is always a pleasure to deal with an individual or a firm who knows what the [illegible] managers and their entire corps of assistants endeavor to please their customers The firm that carries [illegible] [illegible] of Washington and First [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] the business [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] anything of this [illegible] [illegible]

Pre-emption date, No ——

To the Land Agent of the European and Oregon Land Company

Sir You are hereby notified that I have settled upon and improved (describe the land) in the county of —— State of Oregon containing —— acres and that I claim a pre-emption right to purchase said land at the Company's valuation in accordance with the following resolution of the Directors of said Company adopted on the twenty-fifth day of May A D 1871 to the terms of which I hereby fully assent

Resolved That the parties [illegible] and improving any of the lands of the European and Oregon Land Company before the same are offered for market shall be entitled to the pre-emption privilege of purchase at the same terms as the Company would sell the land for without improvement and shall be subject to the same conditions of payment as all other lands belong to the Company when brought to market, provided such settlers shall file in the Land Office of said Company written application giving notice of such settlement and shall accept the privilege upon the condition that when the price of the land shall be fixed notice thereof shall be sent by the Company's Land Agent through the Postoffice or otherwise as may be convenient to the residence of the party claiming the pre-emption privilege, and if the land is not purchased by the said party within sixty days from the date of such notice the Company will be at liberty to sell the land to any other person

(Name of applicant)

(Postoffice address)

When the application is received a certificate signed by the Agent obligating the Company to the terms will be sent to the claimant in the following form

PRE EMPTION CERTIFICATE, NO ——

This is to certify that —— of —— county State of Oregon has this day filed in this office a pre-emption claim to description of tract here) and is hereby entitled to the first privilege of purchasing said land at the Company s valuation (which is to be made with out reference to improvements) when the same shall be placed in market in accordance with a resolution of the Board of Directors of said Company adopted May 25 A D 1871

When the price of the above described land is fixed notice thereof will be sent to the party to whom this Certificate is issued and if the land is not purchased by the said party as the holder hereof within sixty days from the date of said notice the Company will be at liberty to sell the land to any other person

(Signed) Land Agent of the E & O Land Co

The lands will be appraised by a competent disinterested party under oath at their actual present value—no fancy or prospective prices on the basis of similar lands in the vicinity and when appraisement is made they will be sold in quantity not exceeding one hundred and sixty acres to one person payable in five equal annual installments with interest [illegible] of contract, at [illegible] per annum principal and interest payable in United States Legal Tender Notes Warranty deeds given after [illegible] payment in full

DIVERSION OF THE GRAIN TRADE.—The shipments of grain for the Canadian ports from the three principal shipping ports, Chicago, Milwaukee and Toledo, during the past week have been unusually large. The increase in the diversion of corn to the St Lawrence route is the most marked. The total shipments of corn for the week were 1,697,961 bushels. Of this amount 586,142 bushels were consigned to Buffalo, 558,608 bushels to Kingston and Montreal, and 104,[illegible] bushels to Port Colborne. The aggregate shipments by lake to all the United States ports were 827,122 bushels of corn, against [illegible] bushels to all the Canadian ports. The consignments of corn to Canadian ports last week were larger than ever before in the same length of time. The only reason we can give for this diversion of trade is the fear of detension felt on account of the low stage of water. This, however, was imaginary to a large extent as there was water enough for the early part of the season. All uneasiness on this score may be banished, as the late heavy rains have furnished an abundant supply.

Wheat in Liverpool 12s 9d@13s.

The ship A. M. Small will commence to load with Wheat to-morrow morning for the United Kingdom. She has been chartered by Allen & Lewis.

The steamship John L. Stephens brought to this port 700 tons of assorted cargo.

The bark H. W. Almy is discharging cargo at Flanders' wharf.

The brig Brewster was towed down the river this afternoon by the tug boat Ben Holladay. She took from here about 300 tons of freight, the majority of which consisted of the Light House material for Cape Foulweather. The Brewster will receive on board 500 cases of salmon at Eagle Cliff, 1,000 cases at Cathlamet, and 500 cases at Westport. A number of staves will also be taken on at the latter port. Her entire cargo will be about 500 tons.

A very valuable discovery of Lime Stone is reported near Roseburg, in Douglas county. It is situated near the line of the railroad, and is reported to be excellent in quality and inexhaustible in quantity. Lime produced from this quarry it is believed can be furnished and sold in this market at lower rates than we now pay for the article from California or San Juan Island. We learn that arrangements are already being made to introduce the Roseburg Lime here at an early day. This Lime Stone may also be made available in smelting our Iron Ores. One of the present drawbacks to our Iron industry is the scarcity of Lime Stone and its cost.

Savings! Savings!

FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF PORTLAND.

SAVINGS DEPARTMENT.

THIS BANK HAS ESTABLISHED IN CONNECTION with the general Banking business a SAVINGS DEPARTMENT, and will allow Interest on Coin Deposits made in accordance with the conditions adopted by the Association.

In establishing a SAVINGS DEPARTMENT this Banking Association has in view the benefits to accrue to a class of persons having small sums to loan, by providing a safe place of deposit, ample security and fair rate of interest, as well as to aggregate and bring into use idle capital.

For the safety of deposits in this Bank are pledged its entire capital and resources, and also the personal liability of its Directors and Stockholders, as provided by Section 12 of the National Currency Act, approved June 3, 1864, a greater security than that given by ordinary Savings Banks. Printed copies of the conditions upon which deposits are received may be had upon application at the Bank.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW [illegible]

Dr. Gibbon's Dispen[illegible]

623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. [illegible] 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhoea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis, in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Di[illegible] [illegible] and Ulcerated [illegible] [illegible] ully treated.

DR. GIBBON has the pleasure of [illegible] has returned from visiting the [illegible] Europe, and has resumed practice at his [illegible] Kearny street, corner of Commercial, [illegible] where his old patients and those requiring [illegible] may find him.

The Doctor has spared neither time nor [illegible] ing out new remedies, and has returned with [illegible] facilities for the alleviation of human suf[illegible]

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a [illegible] ence from the effects of secret indulg[illegible] absorbed into the system! Look at their [illegible] ted and disfigured faces and their broken [illegible] tions, disqualifying them for the happiness of [illegible] or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid [illegible] sands suffer until death closes the scene. Let guardians, friends, attend to those who are [illegible] any of these horrible, life-destroying male[illegible] they are cared for and cured before it be too [illegible] them immediately to DR. GIBBON, a physician [illegible] made private diseases his [illegible] is certain to cure the most inveterate case, [illegible] cury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are [illegible] of their friends, to be careful of the many [illegible] doctors who infest all cities, publishing their [illegible] ing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent phy[illegible] and other places. Be therefore careful and make inquiry or you may fall into the hands of these [illegible] tans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of [illegible] solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence [illegible] by the youth of both sexes to an almost [illegible] producing with unerring certainty, the [illegible] morbid symptoms, unless combatted by [illegible] measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark [illegible] eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots about the loins, weakness of the limbs, [illegible] blunted intellect, loss of confidence, [illegible] proaching strangers, a dislike to form new acq[illegible] disposition to shun society, loss of memory, [illegible] pimples and various eruptions about the [illegible] tongue, feted breath, coughs, consumption, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief [illegible] tained, should apply immediately, either in [illegible] letter, and have a cure effected by his new and [illegible] mode of treating this disease, which never failed [illegible] ing a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give [illegible] dred Dollars to any person who will prove [illegible] to him that he was cured of this complaint by [illegible] the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN.

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are [illegible] under any of these fearful maladies, should not [illegible] sacred responsibility resting upon them [illegible] obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give [illegible] patient a written instrument, binding himself [illegible] radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, [illegible] medicines promptly forwarded, free from curiosity, to any part of the country, with full directions. By inclosing Ten Dollars coin, in letter through the Postoffice or through Wells, Fargo & Co., a package of medicine will be forwarded [illegible] of the Union.

All communications strictly confidential.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and [illegible] who, with bogus sworn-to certificates, dupe the money out of [illegible] one of the self-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen and [illegible] lazy to work at their trades. Some are [illegible] makers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office [illegible] etc. The only way to avoid imposition is to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets, for, as advertising phy[illegible] cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. GIBBON does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patients' letters, etc. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.
